History

Family Resource Center began in 2005 as a branch of Care Net Family Resource Center, (originally New Hope Crisis Pregnancy Center) in Kenosha, Wisconsin.

In 2010, the Zion center became its own independent organization, led by three local pastors with a desire to protect life and share the hope of the Gospel. It was renamed Family Resource Center of Zion.

Over the years, this ministry has saved hundreds of babies, equipped parents with hope and practical helps, and led many to faith in Jesus Christ.

In 2021, we added medical services; as our reach expanded beyond Zion. In 2025 we updated our name to Family Resource Center to better reflect the broader area we now serve.

From our current location on Sheridan Road, we continue to grow—offering life-affirming care, Gospel-centered support, and strong partnerships that meet the real needs of our community with compassion and grace.
